First Appellate District, Div. 3

MARRIAGE CASES, IN RE

Order filed.

The order of this court filed on May 24, 2007, granting the application of appellant, State of California, for extension of time is hereby amended to read in its entirety:

“In light of (1) the declaration appended to the “Second Application of the State of California” for an extension of time in which to serve and file a single answer brief on the merits and (2) the prior order of this court, filed March 8, 2007, addressing the issue of further extensions of time to file that answer brief, the time in which to serve and file the answer brief on the merits is extended to June 14, 2007. The time is also extended to June 14, 2007, for other parties to serve and file their answer briefs on the merits.” No further extensions of time to file the answer brief on the merits will be granted.

S037195PEOPLE v. KENNEDY (JERRY NOBLE)

In the above-entitled matter, a case in which the sentence of death was imposed, the court filed its decision on July 25, 2005, more than 150 days after the certification of the record, because of the following extraordinary and compelling circumstances:

1. The size of the record on appeal (totaling more than 8,500 pages).
2. The necessity to grant appellant, for good cause, numerous extensions of time within which to submit his briefs.
3. The necessity to grant respondent, for good cause, numerous extensions of time within which to submit its brief.
4. The number and complexity of the issues raised on appeal and the extensiveness of the briefing of the parties. The parties’ briefs totaled more than 600 pages and more than 35 issues were raised.
